

“ I'M NOT SURE IF THERE WAS CONSENT...

Consent is like fries. It should be simple.

Freely given

Absence of pressure, excessive intoxication, manipulation

Reversible

Take it back at any time

Informed

Absence of lies or deception

Enthusiastic

Feeling really good about doing it

Specific

Yes to one thing does not mean yes to another.

BUT WHAT IF...

But I didn't fight back - There is 'fight or flight', but also freeze. These responses are automatic and not your fault. No matter how you respond, that doesn't change the fact that you didn't consent.

But I didn't say no - That's okay. Neither silence nor anything other than a yes are consent.

But I flirted - That doesn't change anything. The only time a person is 'asking for it' is when they actually asked for it.

But I kissed them - Remember, consent is specific. Don't blame yourself for initiating one thing without wanting to do another.

But I was drunk - Being drunk is not an invitation or an excuse to have sex with someone against their will. It's not your fault.

But they bought me a drink - Just because they bought you a drink doesn't mean they are entitled to your body.

But they were my partner - Rape in relationships is very common. Just because you love them and you had sex before doesn't mean you give up your sexual autonomy.

But they're such a nice person - Just because you didn't expect this of the person, doesn't mean that it didn't happen. You don't need to make excuses for them or invalidate your experience.

WADHAM'S SEXUAL ASSAULT RESOURCES

Harassment and assault are not tolerated at Wadham in ANY capacity.

There are a number of people you can talk to if you believe that you have been a victim of harassment, and would like support and advice about what resources are available to you and what courses of action you might wish to take, including reporting.

If the harassment took place in the context of the college, please see:

Wadham's policy and procedure on harassment:

peersupport@wadham.ox.ac.uk

su.welfare@wadham.ox.ac.uk

You can also approach members of the welfare team individually; the current team is Eva Hayward, Robbie Strang, Gabriella Emery, and Cara Addleman.

Alternatively you can contact the Women's officers (Leah Mitchell and Lisa Muttonen), the Trans officers (River Deng and Ricky Cooke), or any other appropriate SU officer. However, the most important thing is that you speak to someone you feel comfortable talking to, so you might want to start by talking to a friend who can then support you through any further steps you might want to take.
